

Sunday Worship

10:30am:

Go4th

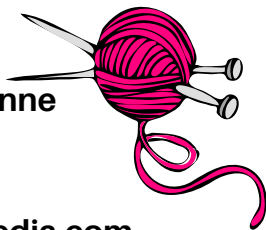

There are still lots of spaces on the rota for the next few months. I am sure we have all been happy to receive the church flowers at some point. So please think about signing up. A member of the team will contact you nearer the date you have chosen.

Thanks from the Flower Team.

Craft Group is meeting on Mondays 18th and 25th March in Footprints Cafe 10.00 - 11.45am. These two consecutive weeks work around the Easter Bank Holiday so please don't forget! Bring along a craft to work on or just come and enjoy the chat

Welcome!

We celebrate with Anastasia the arrival of her husband, Daniel and her children Chapman and Abena who have come to join her here in the UK all the way from Ghana!

When fishes flew and forests walked
And figs grew upon thorn,
Some moment when the moon was blood
Then surely I was born;
With monstrous head and sickening cry
And ears like errant wings,
The devil's walking parody
On all four-footed things.
The tattered outlaw of the earth,
Of ancient crooked will;
Starve, scourge, deride me: I am dumb,
I keep my secret still.
Fools! For I also had my hour;
One far fierce hour and sweet:
There was a shout about my ears,
And palms before my feet.

G.K. Chesterton (1874-1936)

Maundy Thursday 28th March, 7pm Sawston Free Church

With a focus on Church Communities around the word who are persecuted for their Christian Faith.

We will hear their stories alongside the story of Jesus' last night with his disciples as the darkness gathers. And we will share together that communion meal in which Jesus called us to remember Him.

OpenDoors

Holy Saturday 30th March, 11am Sawston Free Church You are invited to A short service of quiet remembrance

Are you feeling someone's loss this year?
It might be recent, it might be a while ago.

Holy Saturday is that time at Easter when Jesus has died, but we have not yet seen the dawn of Easter Day. It's a time of waiting and taking account of who we have lost, remembering their lives and giving thanks for everything they were to us.

Before the celebration of Easter Day and Easter Week begin, we invite you to join us and light a candle for someone you have lost.

Good Friday 29th March Sawston Free Church

10am Procession from Sawston Free Church to St Mary's (stopping along High Street on the way and with hot cross buns at the end.)

11:30am Family craft and all-senses service run jointly by St Mary's and the Free Church (at St Mary's)
7pm Quiet reflective service with a focus on Gaza and the story of Rachel Corrie

Easter Day 31st March, 10:30am Sawston Free Church

Alleluiah!
Christ is risen!

Including the blossoming of the cross
