“ Did e'er such love and
sorrow meet,
or thorns compose so rich
a crown? ”

Maundy Thursday
2nd April, 7pm

Good Friday
3rd April
Sawston Free Church

Jesus' last deeds were acts of service.

He washed their feet, he shared bread and wine.

We gather for a simple meal to remember that night.

(We cannot guarantee the soup will be allergen-free - if that might be a problem for you - bring your own flask!)

- 10am Procession from Sawston Free Church to St Mary's following the cross (stopping along High Street on the way and with hot cross buns at the end.)
- 7pm Quiet reflective service to allow a space for reflection and contemplation and to hear again just how far God will go to reach out to the world in love.

Holy Saturday
4th April, 11am
Sawston Free Church

You are invited to
A short service of quiet remembrance

Are you feeling someone's loss this year?
It might be recent, it might be a while ago.

Holy Saturday is that time at Easter when Jesus has died, but we have not yet seen the dawn of Easter Day. It's a time of waiting and taking account of who we have lost, remembering their lives and giving thanks for everything they were to us.

Before the celebration of Easter Day and Easter Week begin, we invite you to join us and light a candle for someone you have lost.

Easter Day

Alleluiah!
Christ is risen!
