Holiday Club News!

Our theme is "Wisdom Quest: four things that wise people know."

We will be setting up the church on Monday 27th July from 10am onwards and would welcome items that we can "dress" the stage with. We want to create a set that looks a bit like a study/library and contains all things that might relate to the pursuit of wisdom: book case, big old books, a globe, a model head/brain, telescope, atlas, maps, microscope, mortar board and gown, rack of test tubes... you get the idea!! If you have any of these or other things that suit - can you bring them to church on Sunday 26th or on Monday morning, 27th!

if you need help transporting an item - let Phil know - we can collect!

There are still spaces for more children - if you know any - invite them along - you can use the poster below!
